Positioned on a private allotment of 2023 sqm, this 4 bedroom residence has undergone a substantial renovation with the intention of being the forever family home.

An open plan style kitchen, living and dining space is the central hub for family interaction and overlooks the back yard through large double glazed windows which bath the home in northern light.

Privacy and functionality have been taken into serious consideration when the owners re-designed this home. 3 generous sized bedrooms all with built-ins and ceiling fans run along the eastern side of the home with the master featuring a newly completed ensuite. The fourth large bedroom has both an internal and external entrance, giving
