

113 Asquith Street TEMORA NSW

3  1  2

This unique period home is situated on 980 square metres in one of Temora's most tightly held locations. With schools, recreation, and shopping only a short stroll away this house could easily become your forever home.

Intricate architectural detailing and the central entrance hallway captures your attention immediately. Off the wide hall, you'll find three bedrooms with one containing an original fireplace and picture rails. The central bathroom has beautiful white tiled walls and serves the home well. Once you make your way into the living spaces it's all about modern fixtures.

Throughout the day the northern sunroom is the ideal place to sit and enjoy the days light and relax surrounded by
